Gerold Fernando is the Executive Director of KMC's Tenant Representation Services. With a demonstrated history of working in the real estate industry, he is highly skilled in negotiation, sales, sales management, business operations, and market research. He is focused on the overall management and business development including the mentorship of its leasing professionals.

Gerold specializes in offshoring corporate services and tenant representation. He provides clients with a list of sites and office spaces suited to their requirements. He now handles multiple transactions in and outside of the Metro Manila area and caters to a wide array of clients from local businesses and multinationals.

He continues to strive as a strong business development professional. Aside from having a holistic career growth, he recently completed his post baccalaureate degree in Real Estate Management from the De La Salle University.

As a testament to his continuing expertise in the field, Gerold also successfully completed his Master's degree in Corporate Real Estate from CoreNet Global – the leading corporate real estate association in the world.
