Jose Carmelo “Melo” J. Porciuncula is the Executive Director for Investor Services at KMC. Aside from the execution of his leadership roles, he is mainly responsible for the overall management and long-term business viability of the company including the assessment of investment opportunities and the sale of high net worth property transactions.

Melo is also handling the operational functions of the departments under Investor Services. Its Asset Management team offers full-service property and facilities management while the Investment team focuses on providing professional and tailor-fitted assistance to individuals, groups, corporations looking to acquire or dispose of large-scale properties. His highly-skilled team is also venturing on Residential Services that helps maximize the potential income of your investment property.

Prior to his career with KMC, Melo worked for one of the leading telecommunications companies in the Philippines. While there, he dealt with and managed the accounts of top 1000 corporations in the Philippines. Previously, Melo gained his Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing Management from De La Salle - College of Saint Benilde.
