Matthew is one of the senior leasing associates of KMC's Landlord Representation Team. He works with selected clients and assists in the entire transactional process including site viewings, negotiation, liaison with lawyers, preparation of documents and reports, and attending client meetings.

Having the objective of having repeat business partners, he builds trust and aims for a long-term professional relationship with his clients. Matthew also assists in setting up more business opportunities for them.

With his 2 years of substantial experience in sales and a wide network of local and international real estate professionals, Matthew focuses on real estate franchising and puts the effort in setting up brokerages in Metro Manila and in provincial locations.
