Early is KMC's Associate Director for Investments. She began her real estate career in 2003 and became a licensed real estate broker in 2014. With over 20 years of experience in the real estate industry, Early is equipped with the wealth of knowledge and knowhow regarding transactions, solutions, and decision making in the industry.

As the Associate Director for Investments, Early's main role is to deliver service to existing clients by cultivating relationships with high-level decision makers, and in the process, secure repeat business and referrals for the company. She specializes in handling industrial transactions – not only limited to sales and lease but also sophisticated deals.

Early has worked with multinational real estate firms and has secured more than 2,000 transactions in her career.
